TERROR – LET'S STOP IT TOGETHER!

- Israel Police: Dial 100 – and we'll be there!

If you come across a suspicious person, object, or vehicle, report it immediately to a police officer or call the police at 100.

What to do during a terrorist attack?

- Leave the site immediately, moving to an open space or a protected area.
- Avoid, as best you can, tall buildings, glass windows, and vehicles.
- If there are police in the area, follow their instructions.

What to do as soon as the terror incident is over?

- If the police have not arrived yet – call 100 immediately. Follow the instructions of police forces and rescue teams.
- Do not form or join a crowd! Leave the area immediately: there may be additional explosive charges around.
- Make way for rescue vehicles.
- Observe your surroundings, and report immediately any suspects or additional explosive charges to the police.
- If you have any information that may help apprehend suspects or locate a vehicle involved in an attack, contact the police at once.

How to behave if you find yourself around a suicide-bombing or shooting?

- Keep alert, especially in crowded places.
- If you come across a suspicious person, suspicious object or suspicious vehicle – alert a police officer or call 100.

What are the suspicious signs that can give away a terrorist bomber?

External appearance:

- Clothes unsuitable for the time of year (e.g., a coat in summer).
- A youngster (usually) who is trying to merge, by dress and behavior, with the surrounding population (on public transport, at entertainment places, amongst soldiers, or religious/Orthodox groups), even though he or she don't belong to that group.
- Anything protruding in an unusual way under the person's clothing.

Suspicious behavior:

- Nervousness, tension, profuse perspiration.
- Walking slowly while glancing right and left, or running in a suspicious manner.
- Repeated attempts to steer clear of security forces.
- Repeated nervousness concerning something underneath clothing.
- Nervous, hesitant mumbling.

Suspect equipment, tools and accessories:

- A suitcase, shoulder, hand-bag or backpack.
- Electrical wires, switches or electronic devices sticking out of the bag or pocket.

How to identify a suspicious vehicle?

- Vehicle license plate looks "improvised" or mismatched (different front and back plates).
- A vehicle parked suspiciously for a prolonged time in a central place or in a no-parking area.
- A vehicle is noticeably loaded down.

What to do if you suspect something?

- Call 100 at once, and give the switchboard operator as many details as possible about the suspect or the vehicle.
- While speaking to the operator, try to keep an eye on the suspect or vehicle from a safe distance.
- Wait for the police to arrive.
