

CROWD MANAGEMENT QUESTIONNAIRE

You are among the over 600 people from 32 states, the District of Columbia and three provinces in Canada who have requested copies of the Cincinnati Task Force report Crowd Management. Below is a brief questionnaire designed to measure the report's usefulness. Please take a moment now to complete and mail this self-addressed questionnaire. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and quick response.

Paul L. Wertheimer

- 52 responses from 202 questionnaires = 25.7%
Public Information Officer
City of Cincinnati, Ohio
- (15.5% of 1300 Crowd Management Report recipients polled)

NAME _____ TITLE _____

ORGANIZATION _____ ADDRESS _____

1. Have you read the Task Force report? Yes 76.9% No 3.8% Portions 19.2%
2. What was your interest in the report? Professional 96% Academic 4% or Non-Professional _____
3. What was your opinion of the report? Thorough 89.5% Incomplete 10.5%
Remarks: _____

4. What topics would you liked to have seen covered more thoroughly? _____
5. What chapters were most informative? I 27% II 13% III 13% IV 3.7% V 7.5% VI 22% VII 3.7% VIII 7.5%
6. Would you recommend this report to others in your field? Yes 95.8% No 4.2%
7. How did you use this report? Read & filed 24.6% Resource for crowd management planning 44.9% Resource for proposed laws 15.9% Educational use 14%
8. Do you (and your organization) support the Task Force recommendations directed to the International Association of Auditorium Managers (see Chapter VII, Page 67)?
Yes 94% No 6%
9. Do you (and your organization) support the Task Force recommendations directed to the National Bureau of Standards (see Chapter IV, Page 52)? Yes 92% No 8%
10. Has your institution, facility, organization, etc. experienced crowd disorder problems in the past? Yes 61% No 39%
11. If the answer to question 10 is "yes", please specify briefly the event, year, type and cause of disorder, damage, and modification of crowd planning, if any.

(the use of additional paper is welcome to respond to questions)